

Documentary Film Making in India
by
Foreign Audio Visual Agencies

The completed application form and signed undertaking (placed below) has to be sent, preferably by e-mail, to the officer responsible for press and information work in the relevant Embassy or High Commissions of India. The application is processed in India by the External Publicity (XP) Division of the Ministry of External Affairs, which issues a clearance for filming in India (a specimen copy is enclosed). Indian missions abroad issue Journalist ('J') visa for travel to India for filming on the basis of this clearance. Documentary filming is not permissible on other types of visas (e.g. tourist/business visas)

Upon issue of the clearance import of only filming equipment is facilitated. The local representative of the producers can collect a letter for customs facilitation in advance from the XP Division.
